MOSCHINO

Synonymous with tongue-in-cheek humour and an eclectic sense of style, Moschino's irreverent spirit is evident in its furniture line, produced by Italian company Altreforme. The Arlecchino collection is as theatrical and whimsical as the character it is inspired by and named after; Arlecchino is Italian for "harlequin", a comedic servant or clown. Multi-faceted shapes taking after the harlequin's collar and the character's trademark patchwork of diamond-shaped fabric can be seen in the side tables and cabinets, all made of aluminium.
